

MARY SIMMONS GRANDMOTHER'S TROPHY

1990

This trophy is a brass rocking chair on a pedestal and was donated by Mary Simmons. Originally named the Grandmother's Trophy, it was renamed in 1998 to honor Mary, who died that year. Memorial contributions from Linda Salverson, Maureen Welke and Mary's son Scott J. Simmons have enabled the race to be held through 2019. The race is only open to grandmothers. It is a perpetual trophy and shall remain on display at the St. Petersburg Yacht Club at all times. The one race is sailed on the Wednesday closest to Mother's Day. A keeper charm (rocking chair) is awarded to the winner of this trophy, which may only be won once. 720s will be in effect.
